

Richard P. Stevens November 2008

Richard (Dick) Stevens retired from Macomb Community College on July 31, 2008 after 37 plus years of service.

Dick, a graduate of St. Michael's High School, continued his education at Michigan State University, Oakland Community College, and Concordia University, Ann Arbor.

His career in higher education began in 1964 when Dick became employed as a clerk in the Michigan State University Oakland Book Center, in Rochester. He joined the United States Navy to serve our country in 1965. Upon returning to civilian life, Dick continued his bookstore career by working at the Oakland University Book Center and in 1970 accepted the position of Assistant Book Store Manager at Macomb Community College, south campus.

Dick served Macomb Community College in many capacities. He held positions working with Veteran's, as a Professional Student Services Coordinator and also in areas such as Admissions; Recruitment; Enrollment Services; Financial Aid; Job Placement; Placement Testing and Transfer Credit Evaluation.

Dick was selected to serve on the executive board of the Michigan Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, (MACRAO), and was elected its president in 2001. Dick has also served on the Michigan ACT Council and been a member of several other professional associations throughout his career.

Dick's MACRAO involvement includes:

1995-1998 – College Day Night (Co-Chair, 1995, Chair, 1996)

1998-2002 – MACRAO Executive Committee (Vice President, President Elect, President, Past President)

A 33 year resident of Macomb County; Dick and wife Kathie have two daughters (Jean and Beckie) and also two granddaughters, (Kate and Abbey).

Please join me in congratulating Dick Stevens, MACRAO Honorary Member, November 2008.
