Outstanding Transfer Program Recognition Award

The MACRAO Articulation Committee is pleased to accept nominations for the Outstanding Transfer Program Award for 2008. In an effort to celebrate the many initiatives across our accomplished state that support and assist transfer students in meeting their educational objectives, we are calling for nominations to formally recognize these premier programs. The winner will be invited to receive their award at the annual conference in Dearborn.

The deadline date for all nominations is Friday, October 17. The 2008 Outstanding Transfer Program Award nomination form is available on the MACRAO Web site. Questions about the program may be directed to Sylvia Stancil at (313) 577-4902, or Susan Cushnier, (313) 593-5659.

Let's do our part in applauding vitally important programs which underscore the mission of MACRAO and that of the Articulation Committee: providing a seamless and successful transition for our prospective students. Heartfelt thanks from the Articulation Committee for your nominations and support. We'll see you in Dearborn!

New Professionals Workshop Kicks Off Fall Recruitment

On September 4, over forty new admissions professionals gathered in Lansing for a two-day workshop sponsored by the Secondary Schools/ College Relations committee. Participants attended sessions on recruitment ideas, travel tips and participated in a mock college fair.
